WHO IS IT FOR?

DO YOU LIKE SOLVING PROBLEMS AND THE IDEA OF CREATING APPS THAT CAN BE LAUNCHED TO MILLIONS OF USERS WORLDWIDE?

This course is ideal if you have a keen interest in pursuing a career in mobile app testing, design or development and are not sure where to start.

You will need to have at least basic computing skills, be committed and most importantly have a hunger for learning. We select students with a can-do mindset and who demonstrate the potential to flourish in this environment.

WHEN YOU'LL STUDY

HE PIKO HE ORANGA™ runs from 12th February 2018 to 1st June 2018 with two teaching recesses 10th March – 18th March and 14th April to 22nd April.

HOW YOU'LL STUDY

HE PIKO HE ORANGA™ is designed to fit with full time work and requires approx. 10 hours per week (5 hours per week at our modern learning space and 5 hours at home in your own time).

ABOUT US

HE PIKO HE ORANGA™ is an initiative between Kia Ata Mai Educational Trust, a charitable trust focused on Māori education and MEA Mobile, one of New Zealand's largest and most successful independent app developers.

Kia Ata Mai and MEA have partnered together to deliver this initiative with support from the Ka Hao Māori Digital Technology Development Fund. Kia Ata Mai provides high quality literacy programmes for Kura Kaupapa and Māori medium schools, and MEA is a digital communications agency specialising in app development.
